

Dr. Costigliola graduated in Medicine from the University of Naples in 1972 and with distinction, in Anesthesiology and Intensive Care from the University of Pisa in 1978. He also completed studies in Rheumatology, Dermatology, Proctology, Oncology, Surgery, Drugs Abuse, Emergency Treatment, Disaster Action, Hospital Organization, Medical Teaching Methodology and Computer and Audio-Visual Training for the Medical Profession.

He holds prominent positions in multiple prestigious organizations, including being the President of EPMA (European Predictive, Preventive, Personalized Medicine), the President of E.D.A. (European Depression Association), and the President of Medicinal Cannabis Europe since 2020. They serve on the Board of "The European Biotechnology Association" and are a Fellow of the World Certification Institute, where they also serve as a Councilor. Additionally, they are the President of the Oxford Union Academic Board of Directors and a member of the International Advisory Board at King Abdulaziz University in Saudi Arabia. He also a board member of CIRM in Rome (Centro Internazionale Radio Medico) and Councilor of WCI

His editorial experience includes serving on the board of the EPMA Journal (BMC/Springer), and With significant experience in clinical trials, European healthcare, and participation in EU projects (DG 22 and DG 5), he selected as an expert evaluator in the 5th Framework Programme. He possess extensive expertise in health informatics programs, teaching, and speaking at national and international conferences. He is proficient in Italian, French, English, Spanish, and Portuguese, and have been recognized with numerous honors, including being named Cavaliere Ufficiale and Commendatore of the Italian Republic, receiving the Diploma di benemerenzza with "medaglia di la classe" from the Italian Red Cross, and being honored as Equitem Commendatorem Ordinis Sancti Gregorii Magni.