

Rosario Squatrito MD, PhD

Medical consultant for International Healthcare Cooperation Projects of several NGOs & Organizations 2007-2019 Responsibilities: Extensive experience in healthcare cooperation projects in low-resource settings (Mozambique, Albania, Burundi, Iraq), providing medical assistance, training local healthcare professionals, and implementing emergency response strategies in resource-limited settings.

Near Patient Physician Lead of the International SOS Foundation

Dates: 2019 - Present

Responsibilities: Medical oversight for the Tricare Overseas Program

Former Chief of The Internal Medicine Unit at the Fondazione Istituto G. Giglio di Cefalù 2013 – 2019. Responsibilities: Managed a 24-37 bed Unit and specialized outpatient clinics.

Former Head of Emergency Department at the Fondazione Istituto G. Giglio di Cefalù. 2010 – 2019. Responsibilities: Oversaw a Level I Emergency Department with 24000+ annual accesses.

Former Clinical Risk Manager of the Fondazione Istituto G. Giglio di Cefalù 2012 – 2019. Responsibilities: Developed safety protocols and hospital risk management strategies.

Education & Certifications

- Executive Master in Risk Communication Management (2019) – CEFPAS
- Advanced Healthcare Management Training (2018) – CFSS
- Specialization in Internal & Emergency Medicine (2003) – University Vita-Salute San Raffaele (Honors)
- MD, Medicine & Surgery (1998) – University of Catania (Honors)
- Certified Instructor and course Director– ALS, BLS, PTC

Key Skills

- Expertise in internal and emergency medicine
- Extensive experience in international healthcare cooperation
- Expertise in emergency protocols, trauma care, and clinical risk management.
- Strong leadership in healthcare system optimization and protocol development.
- Experienced in ultrasound diagnostics and advanced cardiovascular life support (ACLS) doi: 10.3390/diagnostics12030725. DOI: 10.1186/s12974-019-1469-5